Fijando normas La Federación Internacional, en la búsqueda del profesionalismo y la buena praxis, contribuyó a la elaboración de los diez puntos que componen el Código de Conducta para las agencias de socorro. Los refugiados de Rwanda, como si quisieran recordar a las agencias que no los deben tratar como objetos sin esperanza (punto 10 del Código), colocaron 70 cadáveres en el camino que comunica Goma con el campamento de Kibumba para presionar a las agencias a tomar más acciones en contra del cólera.
