FOREWORD

There is always room for improvement in the structure and operations of any organisation. The Central Emergency Relief Organisation is no exception.

The 1984 Booklet has emerged as a result of the ongoing review of the Central Emergency Plan, and it is hoped that some improvements have been achieved.

If you have any questions about the aspect of the structure or operation of C.E.R.O.; if you wish to offer any criticism, suggestions or service to the Organisation, please do not hesitate to write to the Chairman, Central Emergency Relief Organisation, Prime Minister's Office, Government Headquarters or Telephone 427-8513 or 426-0970 Ext. 218.
