

Medical News

volume 5

number 1

September 1996

C O N T E N T S

Editorial : Medical News makes a fresh start

Pim de Graaf

P2

Climate change, medical emergencies and NGOs

Menno Bouma

P3

Preparedness for cholera epidemic during the 1995 floods in Bangla Desh

Menno Bouma, Yared Kebede (MSF-H)

P4

Mental health project in Sarajevo

Kaz de Jong, Ietje de Groot (MSF-H)

P7

Treatment of severe anaemia in therapeutic feeding centers

Saskia van der Kam (MSF-H)

P11

Oral rehydration therapy for severely malnourished children

Saskia van der Kam (MSF-H)

P13

Schistosoma haematobium along the Weyb River, Ethiopia

Antenelu Asmara, Austen Davis,
David Wickstead (MSF-H)

P15

Personal health care :

an informal selection of recently published medical literature which may have some impact on personal health care policy

The Editor

P19

Intervention strategies in a case of Ebola virus

Pierre Nabeth (Épicentre)

P21

Study on health service charges in Angola

Dominique Lambert (MSF-B)

P24

Medical News is a quarterly publication, edited by Médecins Sans Frontières in collaboration with Épicentre and Aedes, European centers for epidemiological research in operational public health. Conceived by and for on-site MSF volunteers, Medical News aims to promote within the association the exchange of ideas and field experience in the form of mission reports, case studies and documents of general interest on all operational topics.