

▲ Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corp. (NTT) installs 2,900 charge-free public telephones and facsimiles for the convenience of evacuees.

▲ A foreign national using a charge-free international telephone to inform his acquaintance of his safety. KDD installed 40 international telephones for use free of charge.

◀ Light returns to a school building. Electric power supplies to about one million households stopped (power supplies to 2.6 million households stopped immediately after the quake), but the situation returned to normal in a service area of Kansai Electric Power Co. at 3 p.m. Jan. 23 by the completion of an emergency power transmission system.